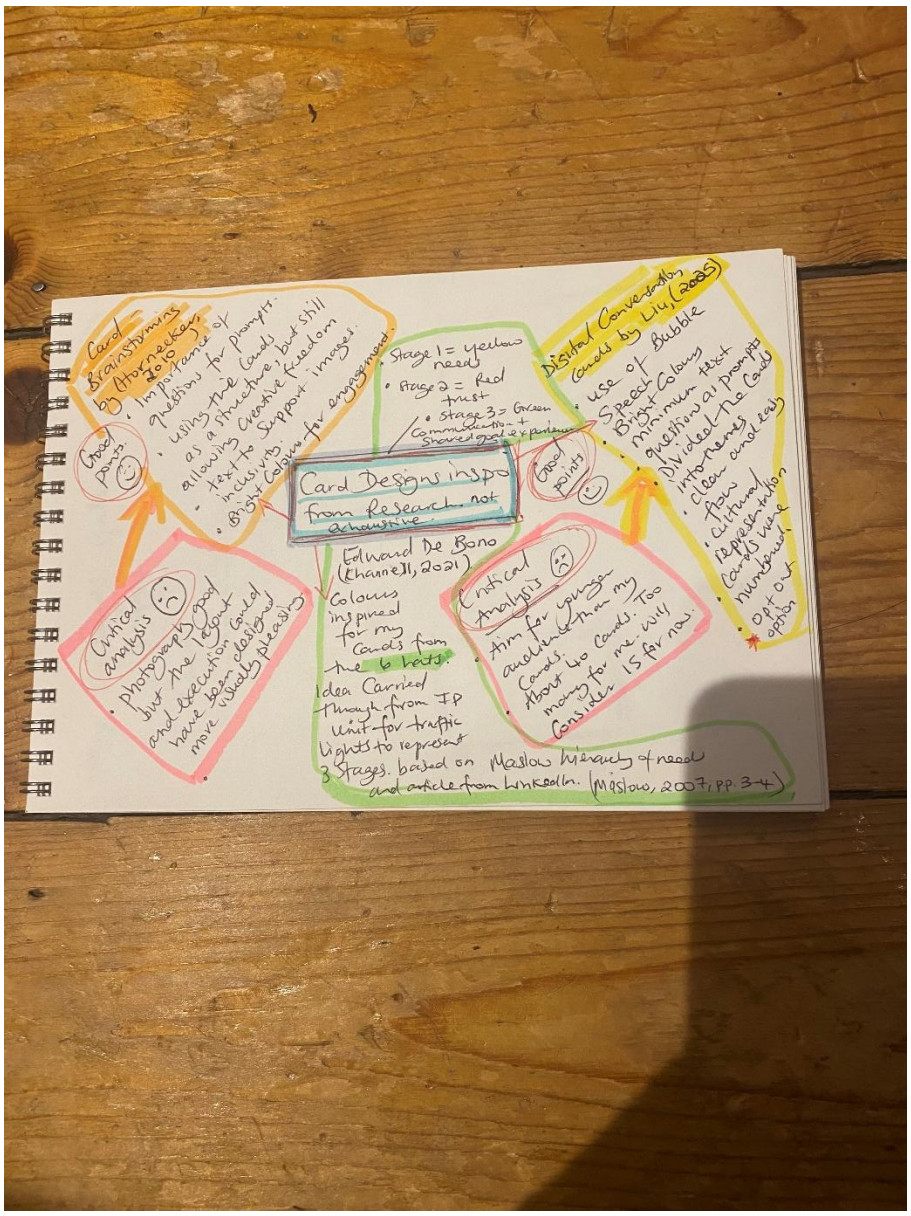
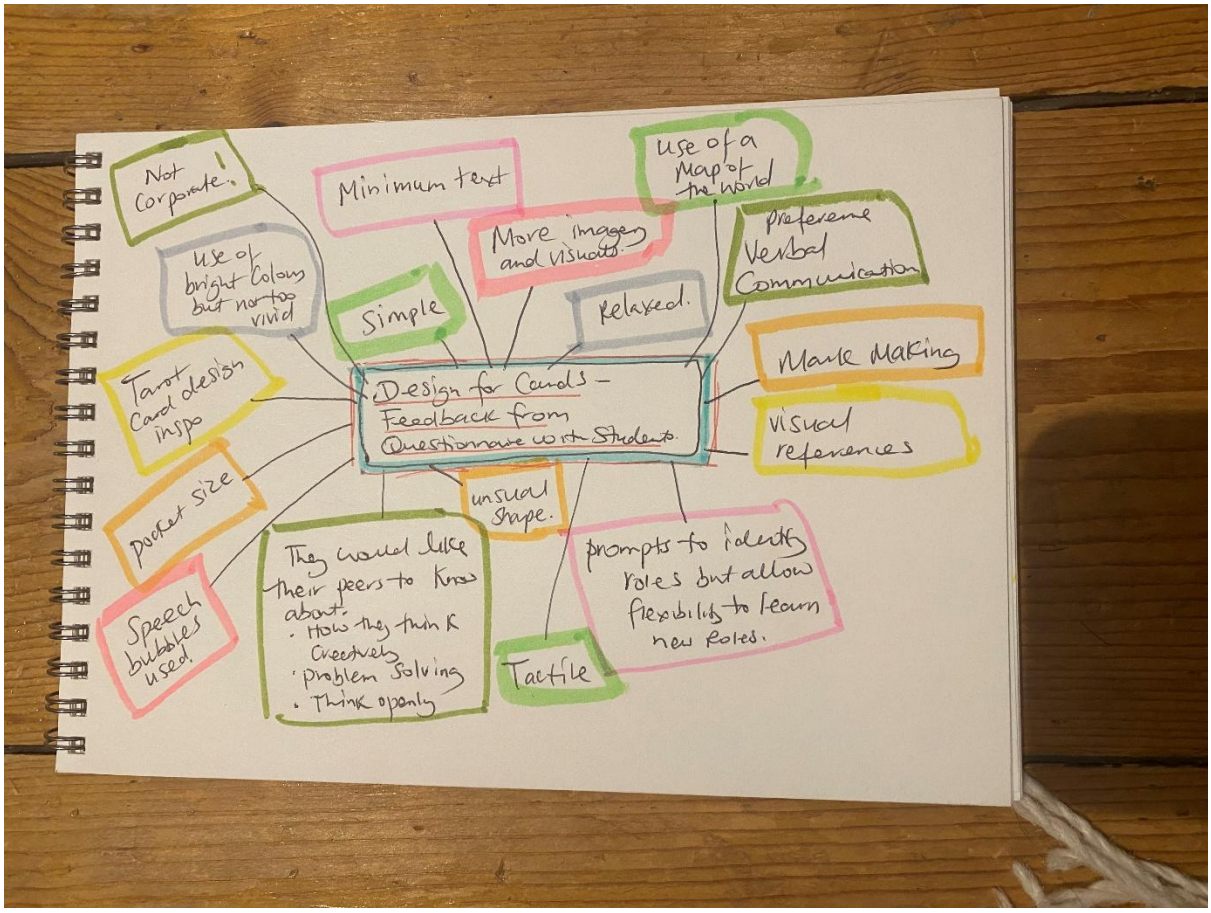
Working Plans for collaborative cards





Not Corporate.
Minimum text
Use of a Map of the world
Use of bright Colour but not too vivid
More images and visuals.
Preferene Verbal Communication Simple Relaxed.
Tarot Card design inspo
Design for Cards - Feedback from Questionnaire with Students.
Mark Making visual references pocket size unusual Shape.
They would like their peers to know about.
• How they think Creatively
• problem Solving
• Think openly prompts to identify roles but allow flexibility to learn new roles.
Speech bubbles used.
Tactile

Cover Card - Cover

Collaborative Working Cards

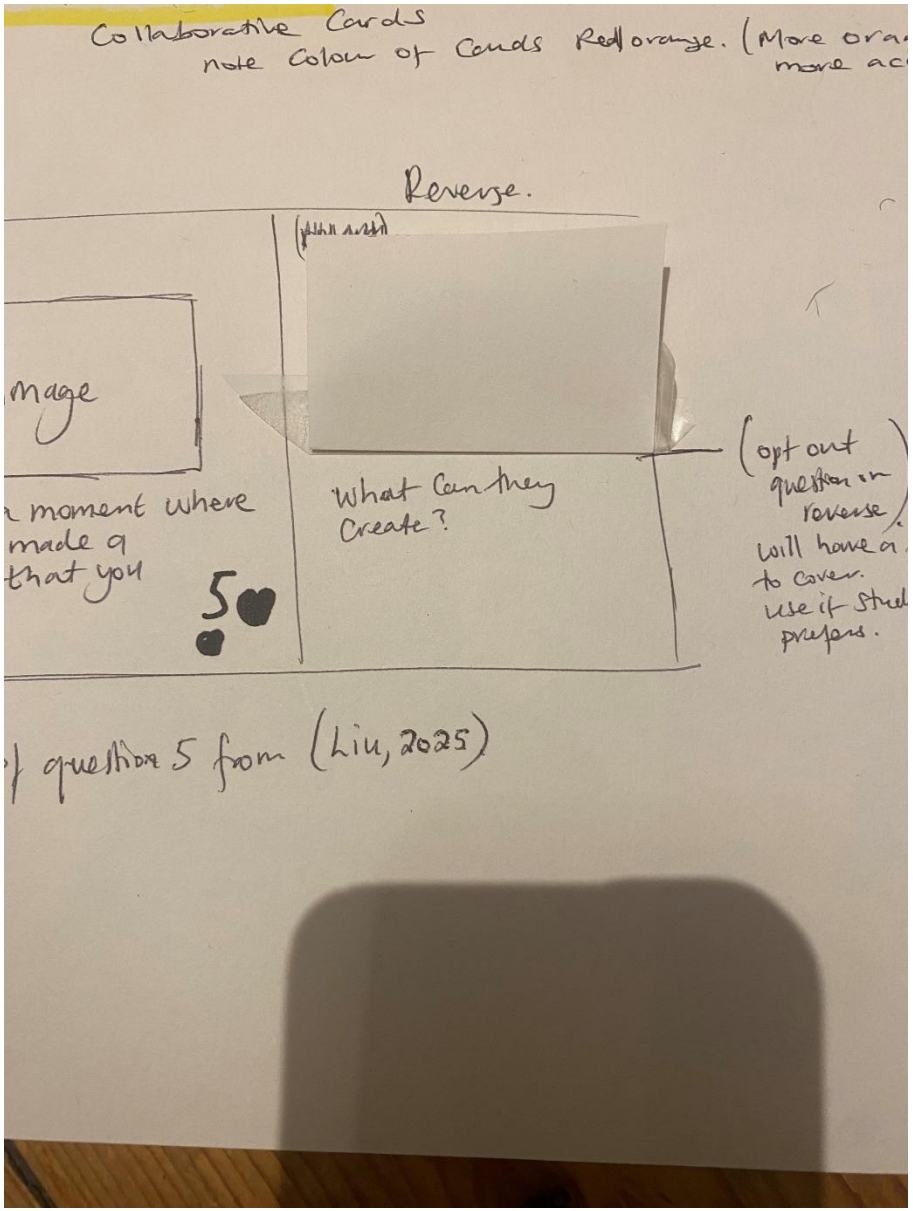
Incorporate the idea of a world map

Abstract Map design

This was the popular front Cover Voted by Students

Using the Slogan Suggested from a Student feedback.

"We are in this together"



Collaborative Cards
note Colour of Cards Red/orange. (More ora more ac
Reverse.
mage moment where made a that you
What Can they Create?
(opt out question in reverse will have a
to cover.
use it stud prepare.
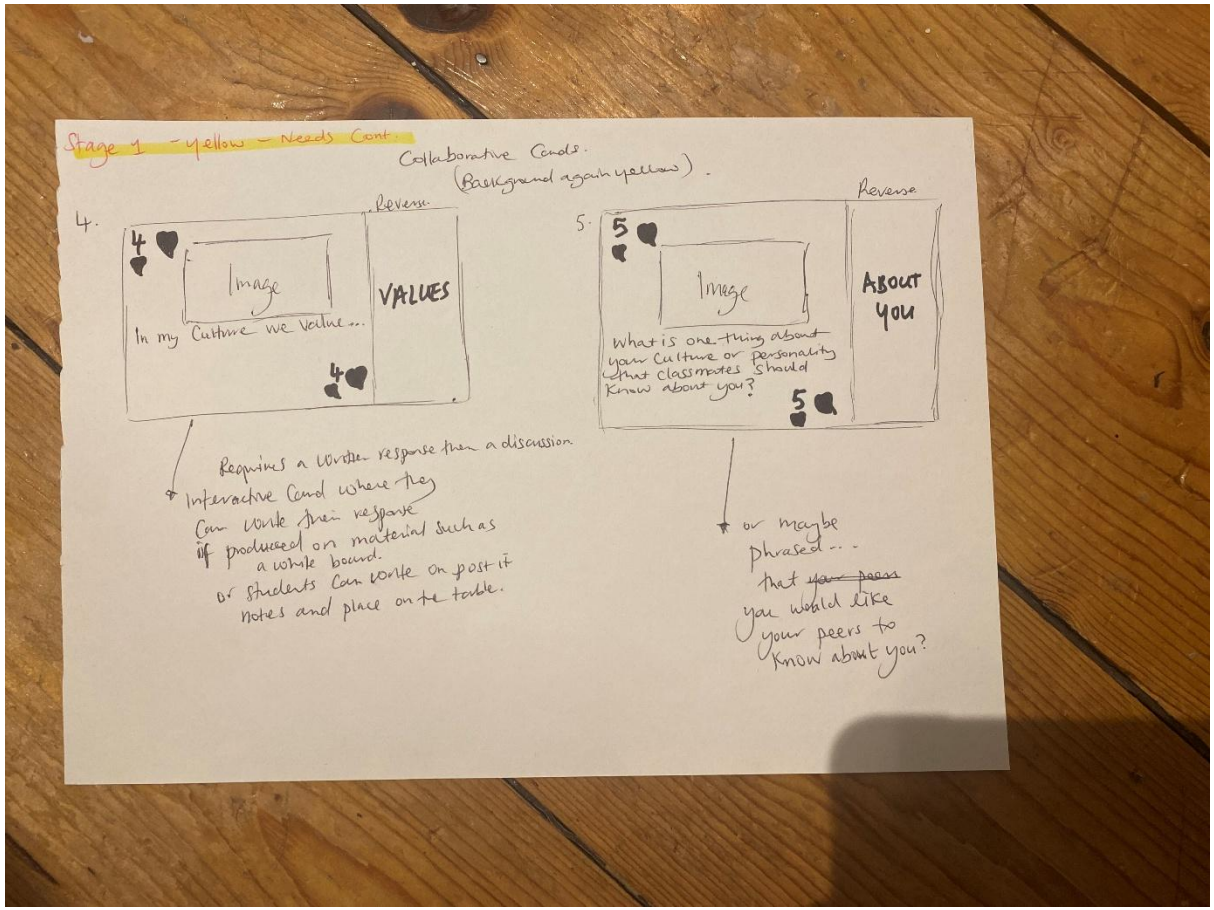
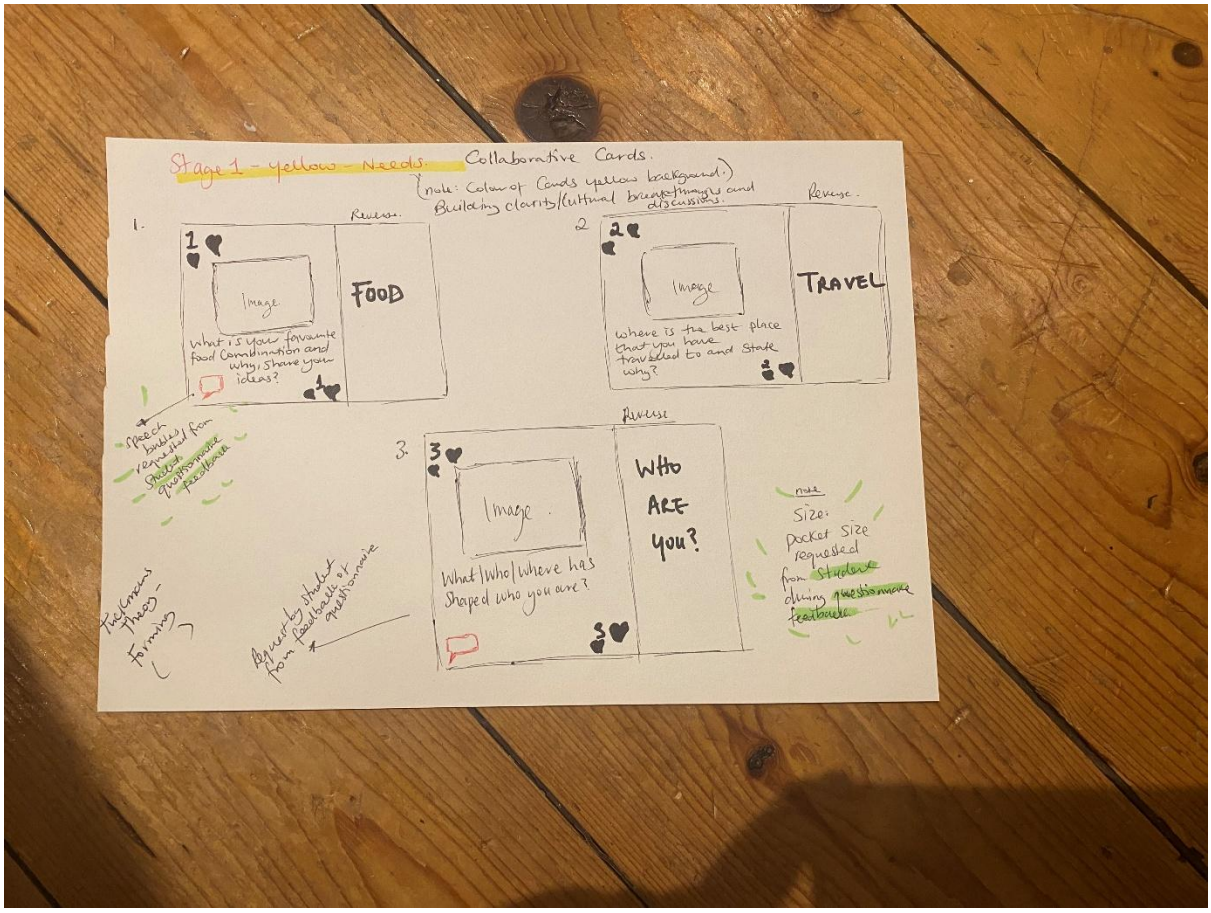
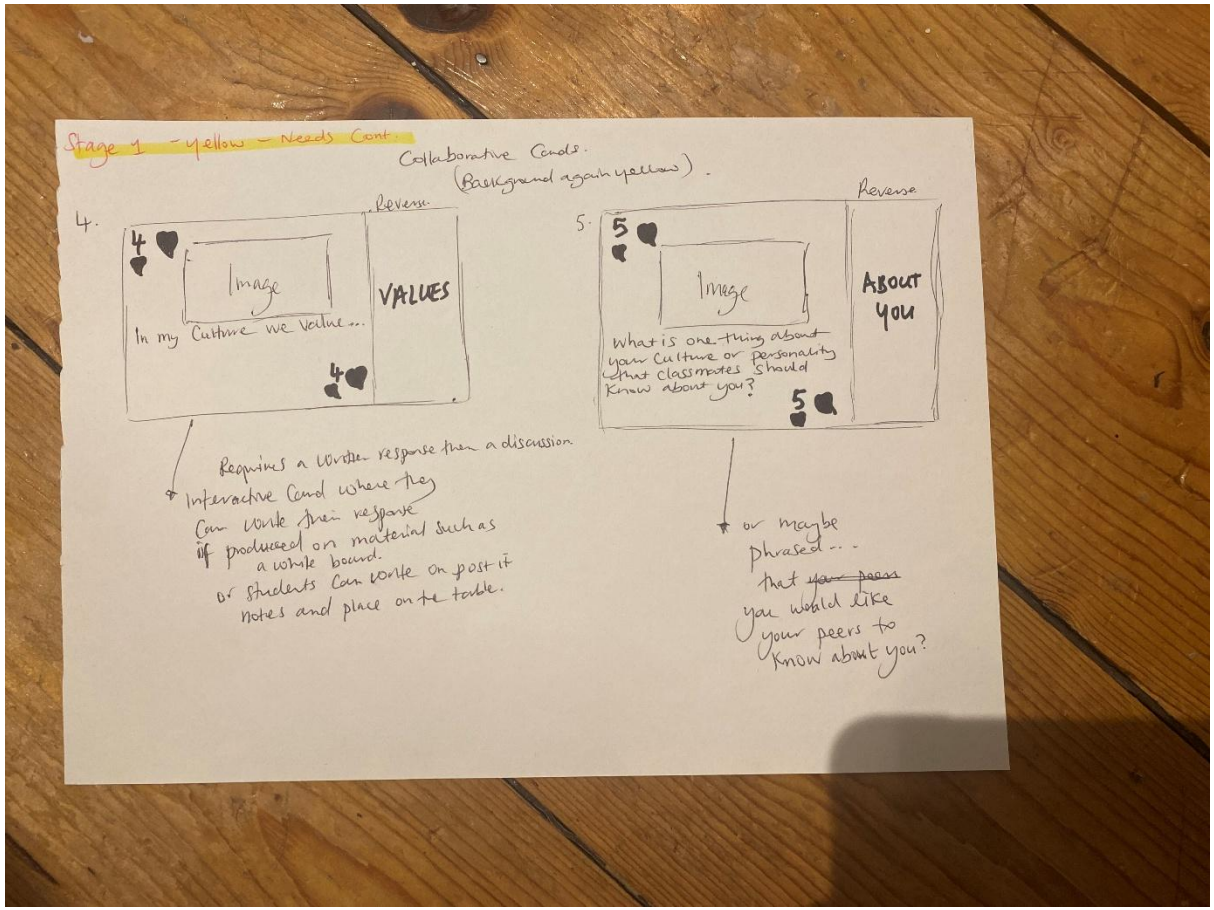
f question 5 from (Liu, 2025)



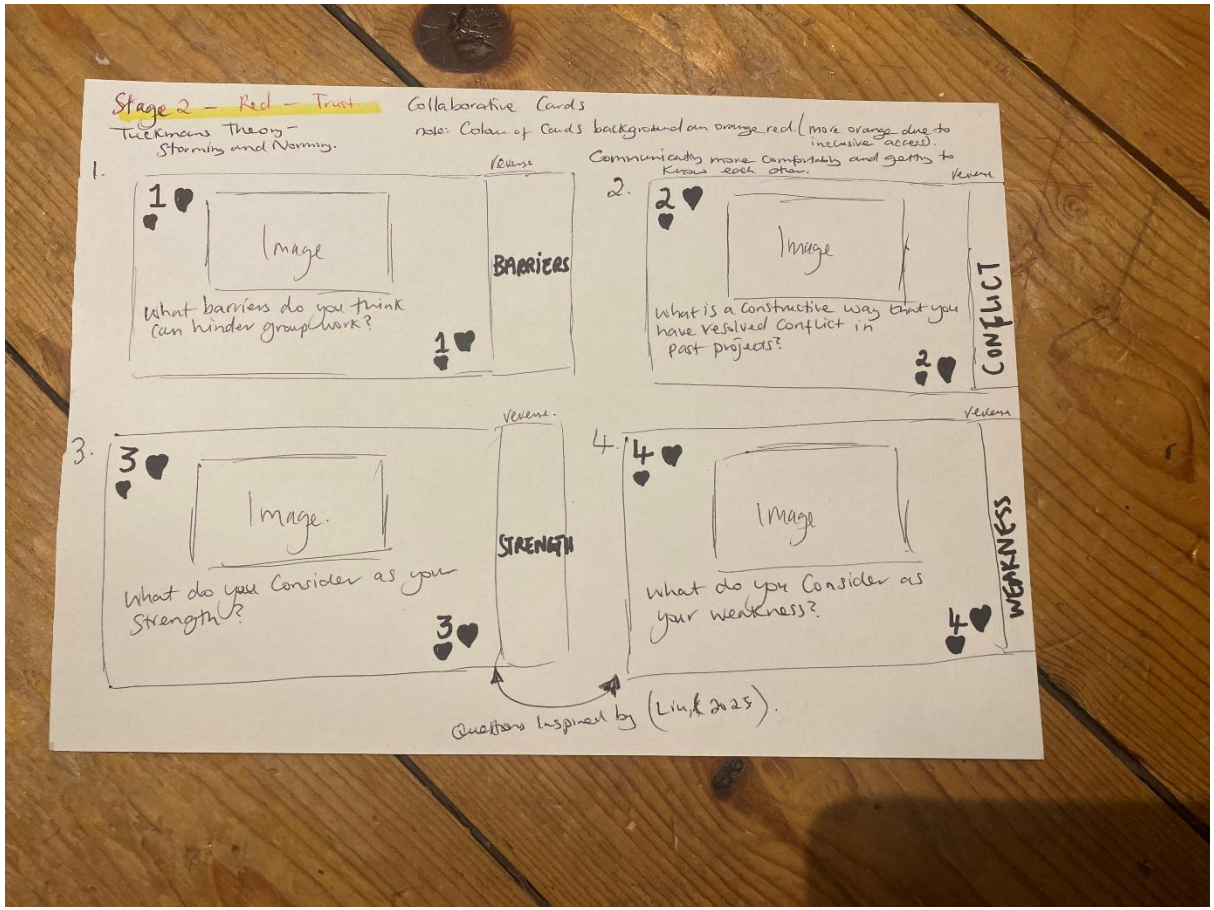
Stage 1 - yellow - Needs Cont.
Collaborative Cards.
(Background again yellow).
4.
Reverse.
4
Image
In my Culture we value...
VALUES
4
Requires a written response than a discussion.
Interactive Card where they can write their response if produced on material such as a white board.
Or students can write on post it notes and place on the table.
5.
Reverse
5
Image
What is one thing about your Culture or personality that classmates should know about you?
ABOUT YOU
5
or maybe phrased...
that ~~your peers~~ you would like your peers to know about you?



Stage 1 - yellow - Needs
Collaborative Cards.
note: Colour of Cards yellow background.
Building clarity/cultural breakthroughs and discussions.
Reverse.
1.
1
Image
What is your favourite food Combination and why, share your ideas?
FOOD
Reverse.
2
2
Image
where is the best place that you have travelled to and state why?
TRAVEL
Reverse
3.
3
Image
What/Who/where has Shaped who you are?
WHO ARE YOU?
note
Size:
Pocket Size requested from Student during questionnaire feedback
Speech bubble required for Student thoughts more feedback
Background Theory formula
Answers by student from feedback or questionnaire



Stage 1 - yellow - Needs Cont.
Collaborative Cards.
(Background again yellow).
4.
Reverse.
4
Image
In my Culture we value...
VALUES
4
Requires a written response than a discussion.
Interactive Card where they can write their response if produced on material such as a white board.
Or students can write on post it notes and place on the table.
5.
Reverse
5
Image
What is one thing about your Culture or personality that classmates should know about you?
ABOUT YOU
5
or maybe phrased...
that ~~your peers~~ you would like your peers to know about you?



Stage 2 – Red – Trust.
Tuckmans Theory – Storming and Norming.
Collaborative Cards
note: Colour of cards background an orange red. (more orange due to inclusive access).
Communicating more comfortably and getting to know each other.
1.
Reverse
1
Image
What barriers do you think can hinder groupwork?
1
BARRIERS
2.
Reverse
2
Image
What is a constructive way that you have resolved conflict in past projects?
2
CONFLICT
3.
Reverse.
3
Image.
What do you Consider as your strength?
3 STRENGTH
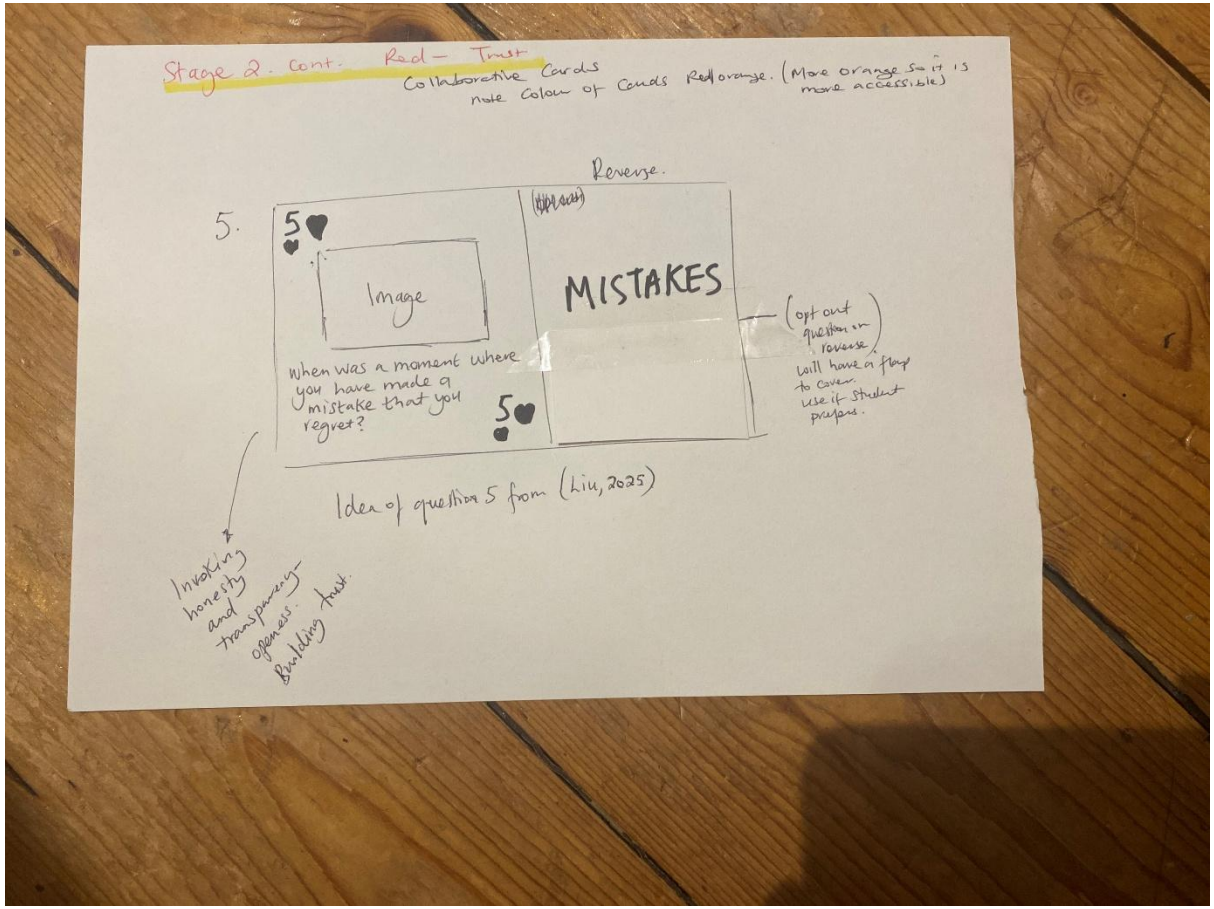
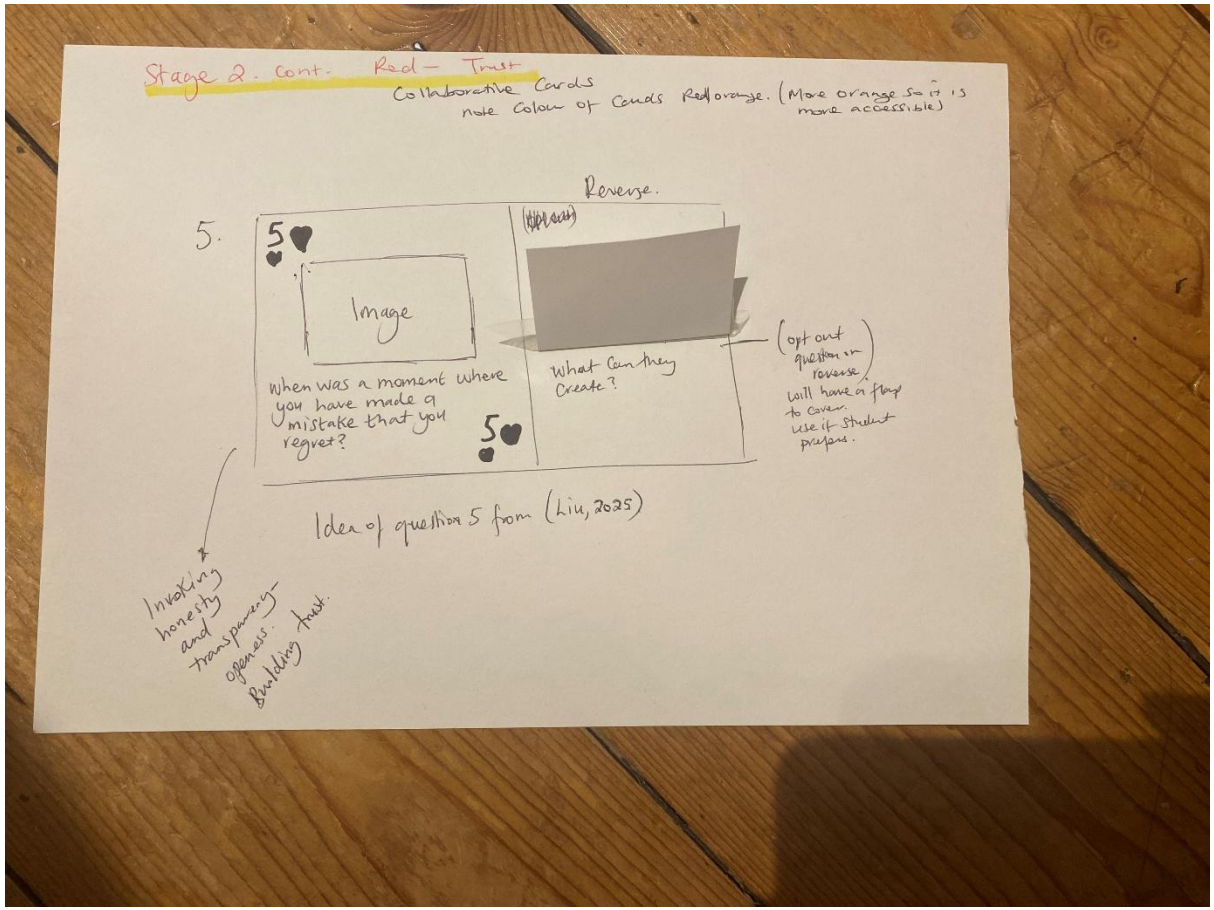
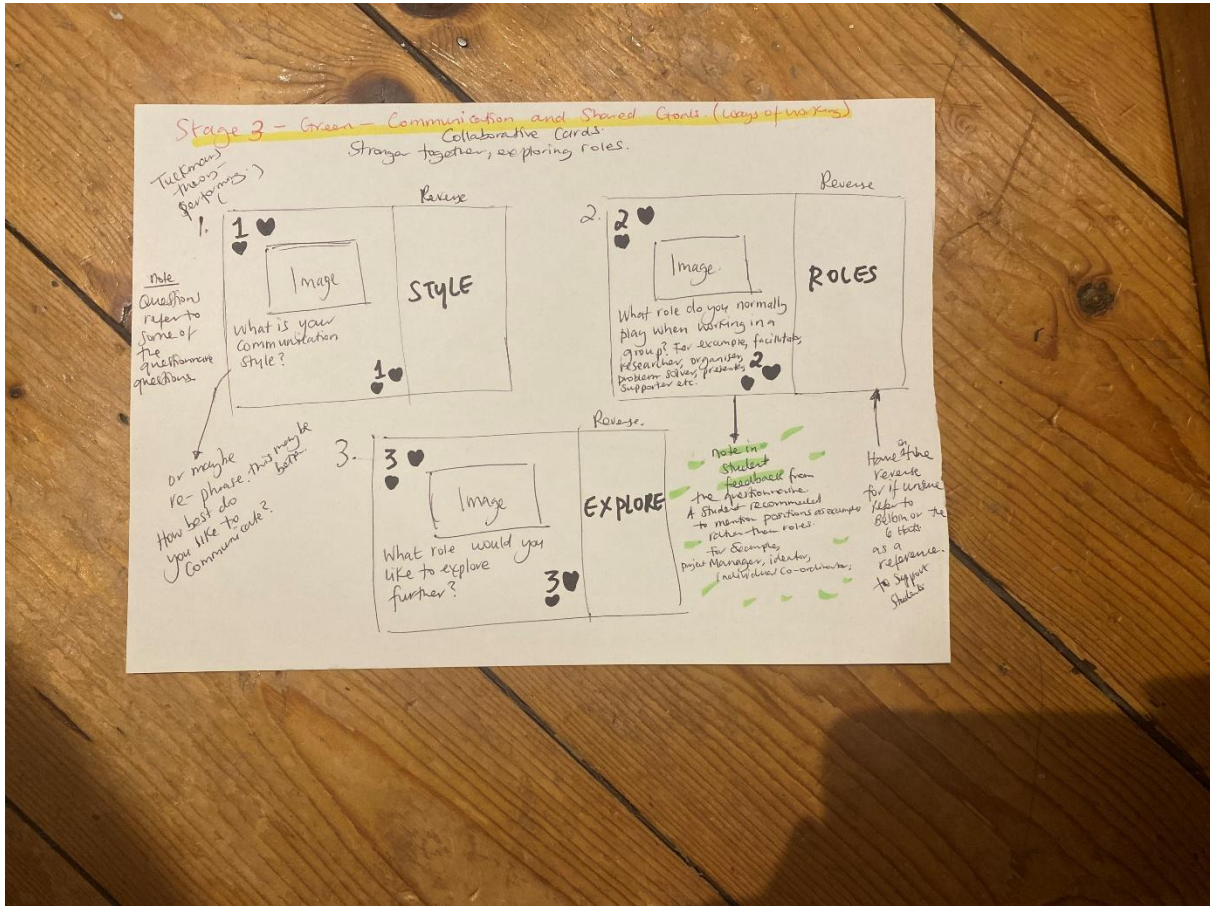
4.
Reverse
4
Image
What do you Consider as your weakness?
4
WEAKNESS
Questions inspired by (Link 2025).



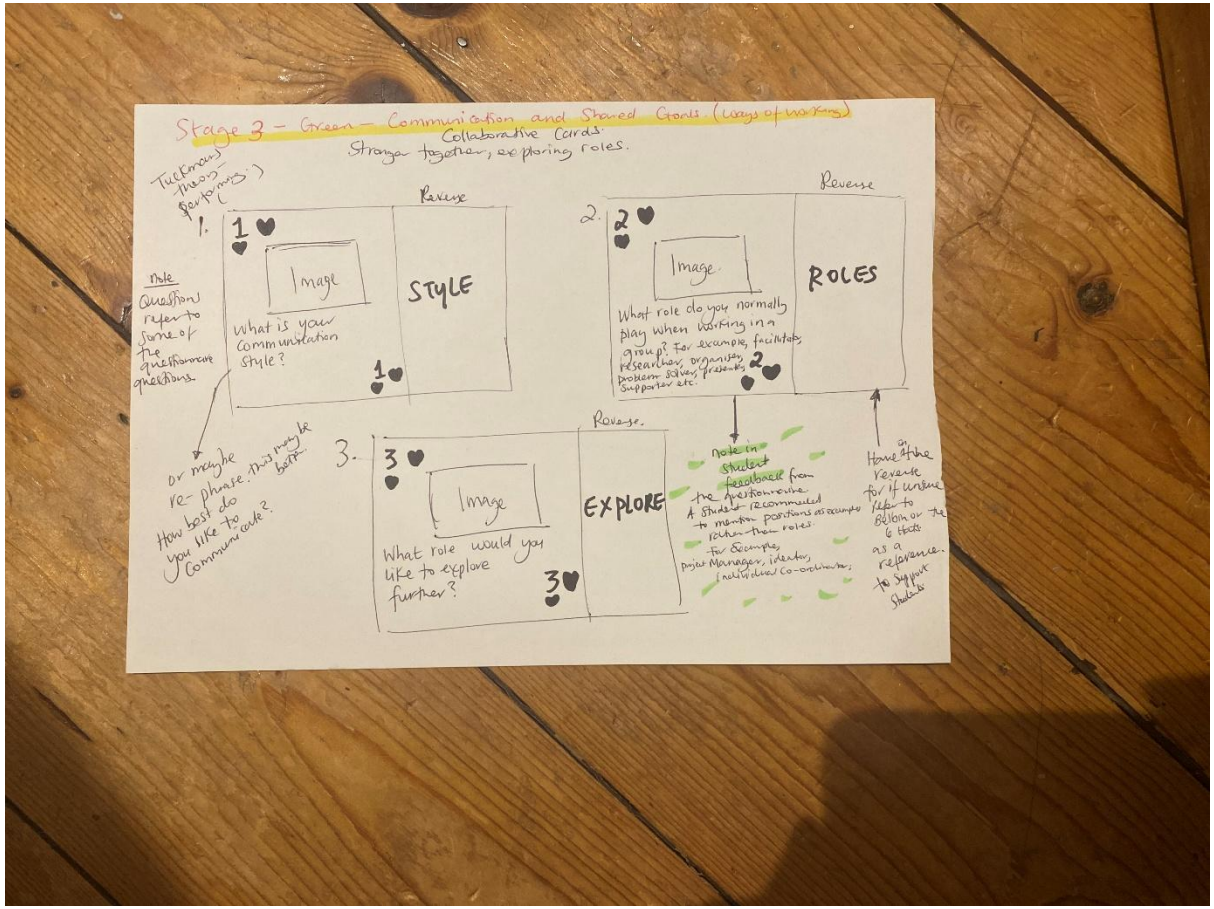
Stage 2. Cont. Red — Trust
Collaborative Cards
note Colour of Cards Red/orange. (More orange so it is more accessible)
Reverse.
5.
5
Image
When was a moment where you have made a mistake that you regret?
5
MISTAKES
(opt out question on reverse will have a flap to cover. use if student prefers.
Idea of question 5 from (Liu, 2025)
Invoking honesty and transparency — openness. Building trust.



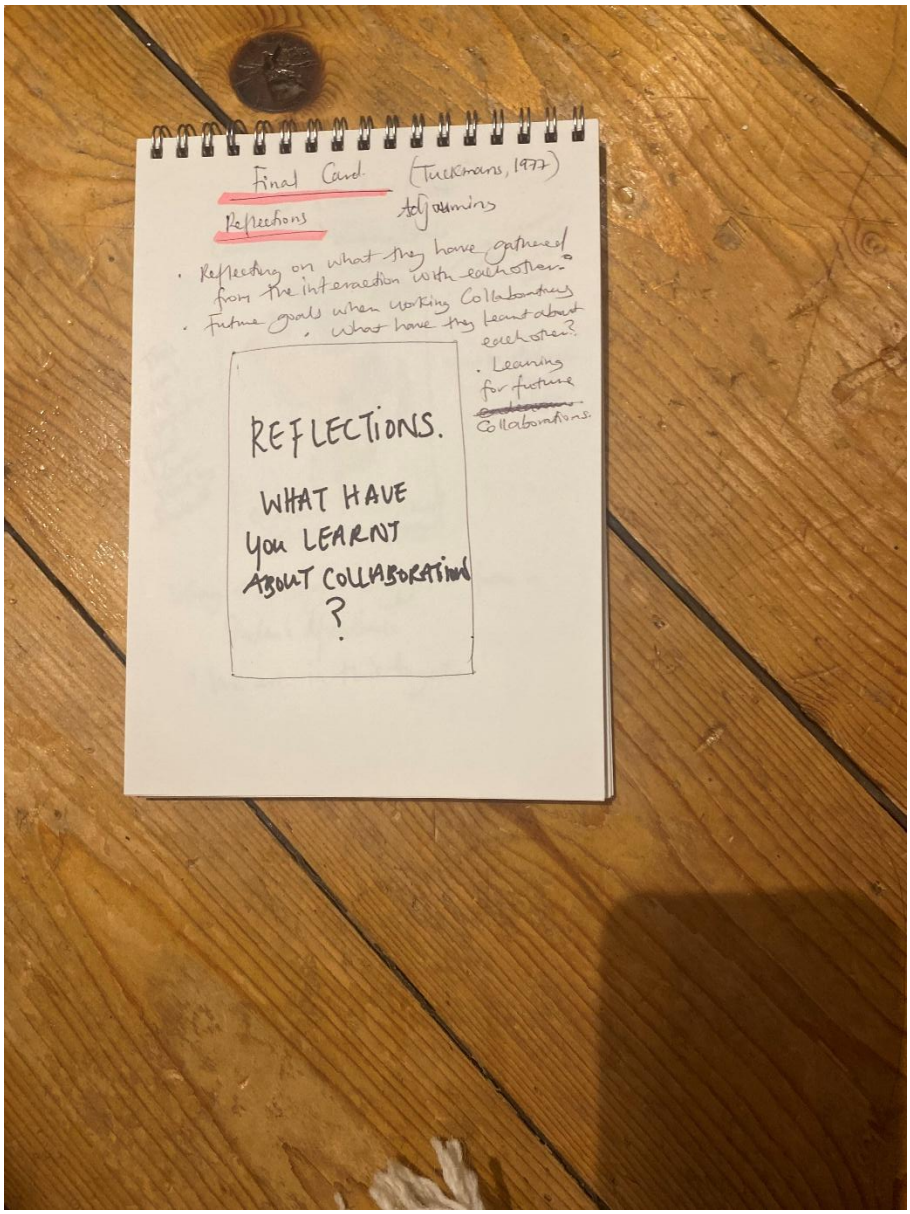
Stage 2. Cont. Red – Trust
Collaborative Cards
Note Colour of Cards Red/orange. (More orange so it is more accessible)
Reverse.
5.
5
Image
When was a moment where you have made a mistake that you regret?
5
What can they Create?
(opt out question on reverse. Will have a flap to cover. Use if student prefers.
Idea of question 5 from (Liu, 2025)
Invoking honesty and transparency – openness. Building trust.



Stage 3 – Green – Communication and Shared Goals (Ways of working)
Collaborative Cards:
Strange together, exploring roles.
Reverse
1
Image
STYLE
What is your communication style?
1
Reverse
2
Image
ROLES
What role do you normally play when working in a group? For example, facilitator, researcher, organiser, problem solver, presenter, supporter etc.
2
Reverse
3
Image
EXPLORE
What role would you like to explore further?
3
Role
Questions refer to some of the questionnaire questions
Or maybe re-phrase. This may be better.
How best do you like to Communicate?
Role in Student feedback
- the questionnaire
A Student recommended to mention positions as examples rather than roles.
- for example, Project Manager, ideator, motivator/driver, Co-ordinator;
Home or Hive
Reverse for if unsure refer to Belbin or the 6 Hats as a reference to support Students



Stage 3 – Green – Communication and Shared Goals (Ways of working)
Collaborative Cards:
Strange together, exploring roles.
Reverse
1
Image
STYLE
What is your communication style?
1
Reverse
2
Image
ROLES
What role do you normally play when working in a group? For example, facilitator, researcher, organiser, problem solver, presenter, supporter etc.
2
Reverse
3
Image
EXPLORE
What role would you like to explore further?
3
Role
Questions refer to some of the questionnaire questions
Or maybe re-phrase. This may be better.
How best do you like to Communicate?
Role in Student feedback
- the questionnaire
A Student recommended to mention positions as examples rather than roles.
- for example, Project Manager, ideator, motivator/driver, Co-ordinator;
Home or Hive
Reverse for if unsure refer to Belbin or the 6 Hats as a reference to support Students



Final Card (Tuckman's, 1977)
Reflections
adjourning
• Reflecting on what they have gathered from the interaction with each other.
• future goals when working Collaboratively, what have they learnt about each other?
• Learning for future Collaborations.
REFLECTIONS.
WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNT ABOUT COLLABORATION ?